Information has been received to the effect that Mrs. T. F. Boulgakova-Belsky^k alias Bouldakova, communist and important member of the G.P.U., arrived in Shanghai from Tientsin some time in December 1928 and stayed at the Plaza Hotel until February 10, 1929 when she removed to her present address at 7 Carter Road. It is reported that she was for a number of years attached to the G.P.U. in Tientsin during which time she acted as secret courier between Tientsin, Peking, Mukden and Harbin. A report is also current that she was arrested in Tientsin for Communist activities, but this has not been confirmed. It is also reported that while in Tientsin she was in charge of a number of dancing partners whose duty it was to disseminate communist propaganda among foreign troops stationed there. It is possible that this latter influence also spread to Shanghai.

Mrs. Boulgakova-Belsky frequents the Grill Room of the Palace Hotel and is in possession of a Soviet passport. Her husband was formerly Commander-in-Chief of one of the Soviet armies, which was engaged against the Whites in the Maritime Province in 1920-1922. He is now reported to be employed as Assistant Procurator to the G.P.U. in Vladivostok. Photograph attached.
